AN APPEAL FOR MORE ROOMS

COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS SAY THAT CITIZENS WILL HAVE TO RESPOND.

The committee on arrangements for the Reunion next week want to make a special appeal to the people for the town for more rooms. Every day brings fresh news of additional visitors to our town. It seems now that there will be at least 2,500 visitors in our midst.

The committee says that unless the citizens rally to their support they cannot find places for all these people. The Commercial hotel will open which fact will help to some extent, but this will by no means supply the demand that will be made for lodging. The people of Ada have never fallen down on a proposition, and the committee feels that all that is necessary is for them to know that more room is needed. We hope, and really believe, that it will not be necessary to make another appeal to the good people of Ada, but we have an opportunity of advertising our little city as it has never been advertised before. Let us all be up and doing, and see that every visitor is taken care of in the very best manner possible.

Additional News of Reunion.

All arrangements for the army tents and cots have finally been made. This was done principally by Senator Owen through the Secretary of War, and were shipped from Ft. Sill today at 8 a. m. These tents and cots are expected to reach Ada not later than Sunday afternoon.

The Reunion committees are making a special appeal to the people of the city to decorate their homes in the very best manner possible. The business houses have ordered bunting and will make the business section very attractive indeed. The committees feel, however, that the citizens should begin decorating their homes Monday to have them in grand array when the visitors begin to arrive Tuesday.

Through a misunderstanding of the state officers, the meeting was moved forward, some time ago, from Sept. 3, 4 and 5 to Sept. 4, 5 and 6. The railroads had already given out instructions to their agents to sell tickets on the 1, 2 and 3 and were unable to correct the instructions to their agents. As a result of this misunderstanding, a great part of the visitors will arrive in Ada on Next Tuesday in stead of Wednesday.

The information bureau at the Pontotoc building will be opened Tuesday morning at 10:30. The reception committee already appointed is requested to meet all trains Tuesday and Wednesday, beginning with the north bound Frisco, Tuesday morning. Congressman Scott Ferris and Geo. D. Key, of Lawton, will be here and address the people. Gov. Cruce will be here and will likely remain for two days.

Mrs. Hester, of Muskogee, Senator Owen's wife's mother, one of the oldest white settlers in what was known as the five civilized nations, will be here, the special guest of J. W. Davis.

Miss Murray Lucas has been appointed official bugler for the reunion. The Enloe orchestra of Ada, will furnish music for all the afternoon and evening meetings.

THE TURK WINS FROM DENVER JACK

A LARGE AUDIENCE WITNESSED
THE MEETING OF THE GLADI-ATORS AT THE LYRIC.

A CLEAN EXHIBITION OF STRENGTH AND SKILL

Terrible Turk and Oscar Dotson,
Strong Man of Chickasha, to Meet Monday Night.

Wrestling is an institution as old as the human race. We have the first account of a wrestling match in Genesis 32:24, and no less person than Jacob was one of the principals. "And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of day."

Last night the people of Ada had the privilege of seeing as clean a wrestling match as was ever put on a mat. Both men were about as clean and perfect specimens of manhood as can be found in the United States or elsewhere, for that matter.

The Terrible Turk and Denver Jack White came together on the mat at the Lyric Airdome. The Turk had the advantage in weight, strength and experience. But at that he had no easy task to throw his opponent in the stipulated time—one hour. Denver Jack was much the lighter of the twain, and his quick action took him out of chancery on many occasions. He showed a gameness worthy of Jacob of old, and was cheered time and time again as he would break and slip away from the hold of the Terrible Turk. There was nothing during the whole exhibition to offend one more than a base ball game, and the writer wishes to state that there is not one 22nd part of the brutality attached to this wrestling match as there is to two elevens of rival colleges on the gridiron of a foot-ball field.

The men came together and feinted for each other's weak points. But if either had any they failed to show to the spectators. It took 17 minutes for the Turk to win the first fall. Several times during this round the man from Denver came near having his husky opponent to the mat; but the latter's immense strength saved him from defeat.

The next bout lasted 20 minutes, and once during this time Jack threw the Turk clear over his head, but could not hold the burly Mohammedan to the mat.

The third time the Turk had his man down in three minutes.

The sympathy of the spectators seemed to be with Denver Jack. This was only natural, as it is human among Americans to root for the weaker side in a conflict.

The writer predicts that if Denver Jack stays with the game a few more years he will stand a good chance of being champion of the world. As it is now, he is a top-notch. All he lacks is experience to make him invincible.

The match was refereed by a well-known business man, and the time-keeper was also a business man of Ada. There were quite a number of ladies present, and every one seemed well satisfied with the exhibition.

It was announced that Oscar Dotson, the Chickasha strong man, had challenged the winner. Mr. Charles-manager, says the Turk will wrestle Dotson or any other man on Monday night, Sept. 2, at the Lyric Airdome. Dotson weighs 195 pounds and the match will be interesting.

W. F. Cassidy returned to his home this morning at Denison, Tex., after spending several days with his brother, Rev. Mike Cassidy. Mr. Cassidy likes Oklahoma very well indeed, and states that crops here are a great deal better than they are in Texas.

RIP VAN WINKLE AT MAJESTIC MONDAY

Monday afternoon and night at the Majestic Theatre the citizens of Ada will have an opportunity of seeing a master-piece in moving pictures, Rip Van Winkle.

The best production of this famous play even seen, founded upon Washington Irving's best story and made famous by Joe Jefferson and Robert McWade. An American Classic. Should be witnessed by every lover of dramatic Art, every reader of American literature, every scholar and student.

Robert McWade in the character of "Rip" gives us a masterly characterization. All the characters are well sustained and natural. The scene on the Catskill Mountains, with its wonderful storm effect, is grand beyond description. The awakening of "Rip" from his twenty years sleep. The play and pictures especially reproduced for the delectation of advanced and discriminating audiences, those who appreciate the right kind of pictures presented in the right way. The entire production is superb and beyond criticism. You'll be glad you have seen it, it leaves a remembrance of keen enjoyment.

JUDGE McKEOWN DELIVERS ADDRESS AT AHL0S0

Prof. Ira J. Myers, of Ahlos0, was in town this morning and informed the News man that the second number of the school lecture course of his school was given last night by Judge T. D. McKeown. The Judge delivered a masterful address, in his usual impressive manner, on the subject, "Our Courts and Our Citizenship, and the Duties They Ow Each Other."

A large crowd attended the lecture and seemed highly pleased with the ideas promulgated by the jurist.

The next number will be an address by Prof. A. L. Fentem on "Why We Educate."

and all went home disgusted with the town. Naturally, today that town from a business standpoint is absolutely dead.

Some republican papers of Oklahoma are rejoicing over the fine crop prospect, for they say it will increase the chances for the success of Taft in November election. They say so long as people have plenty, they do not care for a change in the national administration. The time perhaps has been when some of the people attributed the good crops to the influence of the president of the United States, but such rot is no longer believed by the masses of the people. Whether we have good crops or whether we do not, the rank and file of the American people know that a number of reforms are needed and that the republican party will not make them. These "yellow journals" will have to get more and better reasons before they can get the intelligent people to agree with them in their optimism.

The Otter a Wanderer.

Of all the beasts in the world, the otter, that fierce outlaw, is the greatest wanderer. It is as if he were affected with a curse that forbids him to be still, that forces him ever to push on—on! Rest, as rest, he knows not. Three days will see the end of his longest inaction, and the amount of miles he covers in a fortnight would amaze some folks.—Outing.

ADA SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Misses Price Entertain League.
Tuesday on their attractive lawn in front of their beautiful new home in South Ada, Misses Vallie and Allie Price entertained the Epworth League members together with a number of outside guests. Games of different kinds were played for two hours, and then a course of refreshments, consisting of cream and cake, were enjoyed.

The Misses Price proved themselves charming hostesses, and all enjoyed the evening to the greatest extent.

Birthday Party at Mrs. William Riley's.

The little friends of Master William Riley were entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of his fifth birthday, the guest of honor on this occasion, being Miss Emma Mae Stein, his cousin of Birmingham, Ala., who with her father is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Riley. The house decorations were tastefully carried out by the hostess in appropriate colors with flowers and ferns. The table around which the little ones gathered was beautiful in its decoration of green and yellow, lace over yellow, with a huge bouquet of sun flowers and golden rod forming its center piece.

Those present were the following: Misses Edith and Lucile Chapman, Laverne Lasater, Yvonne Skinner, Emma Haley, Katherine and Nadine Griffith, Mamie Angel, Helen Guest, Lois Katherine Guest, Esther Wood, Grace Statler, Corinne Moore, Annie Mae Moore, Emma Mae Stein of Birmingham, Ala.

Masters John Whayne, Jesse Whayne, James Statler, Lauren Sears, Ben Ware Jones, Charles Angel Jr., Carroll Wood Jr., and William Riley.

Mrs. Riley served ice cream and cake in "Dutch style" and was assisted by Mrs. William A. Guest and Mrs. C. T. Angel.

This crowd of young hopefuls of East Ada, have seldom enjoyed themselves to the extent that they were indulged on this occasion, and although each one present departed herself and himself with all the formality and dignity due a much older crowd, the parents may well expect that other demands will be made upon them by this younger generation as on this occasion the precedent set by Mr. and Mrs. Riley in giving them such entertainment, they will ever be in expectancy for another happy return of Master William Riley's birthday.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR PONTOTOC EXHIBIT

Arrangements have been made with the state fair officials for the showing and taking care of the Pontotoc county exhibit. A. L. Kennedy and T. O. Cullins are doing all in their power to make this a success. They state that they will be glad to receive anything that the people of Ada or surrounding country want to send. Those desiring to send fruit, or any kind of farm or household goods, should send it to R. E. Blanks' office not later than Sept. 20.

Dubinsky Bros. Here Next Monday.

Ada's favorite show, Dubinsky Bros. Stock Co., will be here all next week. Opening Monday night in their big tent. The first play will be "A Man of the People" dealing with a subject of vital importance to the public today. It has been produced with great success in the larger cities, and should be the means of attracting a large crowd. Specialties of the highest order will be introduced between acts. Plays and specialties will all be new and changed every night.

The company is just closing a two weeks engagement in Sulphur where they have been turning people away every night for want of standing room. The tent this time will be located East of the Harris hotel.

The company will arrive from Sulphur tomorrow morning over the Frisco.

Notice.

Owing to the Confederate Reunion the fall term of the Ada Commercial college will be deferred until Monday, Sept. 9.

Normal Notes.

Pres. Briles is having the Normal building put in readiness for use by the Confederate veterans next week. He is anxious to make everything as convenient as possible for the old soldiers.

Prof. W. H. Cox is expected in a day or two. He will have a job for a few days getting the new machinery that has arrived for the manual training department in place. He also is anxious to begin work on the foot ball team and the team's schedule.

The books have been placed in the new library shelves, and now give an attractive appearance to the room. Arrangements will be made shortly for obtaining all the leading magazines and other leading publications.

SOCIETY FOLK ARE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. U. G. Winn opened her home on Thursday afternoon at 4 and entertained forty of her friends at 42 in a most delightful way.

The ladies were met at the door by Mesdames Maddox and Manville.

Mrs. Winn received in the parlor assisted by Mrs. Conn, who introduced Miss Portwood of Ft. Worth, and Mrs. King.

Mrs. Sumner then took the guests to the dining room for punch where Mesdames Mays and Ebey were serving. Misses Lily and Moss Wingo gave the table.

In the evening Judge and Mrs. Winn greeted the gentlemen and their wives who were to be the recipients of their hospitality by meeting them in formally at the door.

Mesdames Tarbett, Moss and Kice received them in the parlor and escorted them to the dining room to the punch table which was presided over by Mesdames Thornton and Kice.

After Mrs. Sumner had furnished them with tallies they proceeded to the lawn which was brilliantly lighted and twelve tables of players, sat down to Forty-two, Mesdames Conn, King and Jones received on the lawn.

At a late hour, as in the afternoon, a salad course accompanied by sherbet was served. A small orchestra played through the evening and contributed much to the pleasure of the occasion.

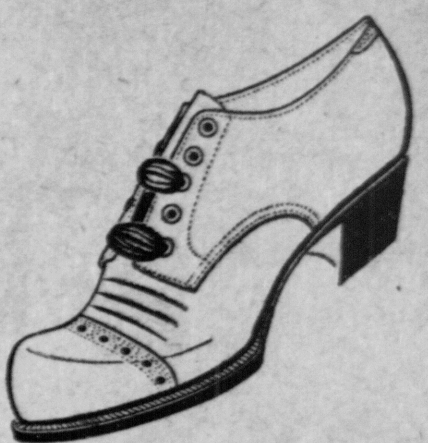

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hays and Judge and Mrs. C. A. Galbreath returned today from an extended trip to the great lakes and other northern points.

Prof. Bascom T. Lawson of Ada, who has been employed as principal of the Sasakwa graded school, will begin work Sept. 9, and will be assisted by three young ladies.

"Mike" Cassidy has resigned his position with the Jones Drug company to enter the Normal. "Mike" says he will have to have at least a week's rest before entering upon the strenuous duties of school life.

A very fine entertainment awaits the visitors of the Lyric theatre this evening. The program is a good one from beginning to end. It will consist of three reels "Second Sight," Imp drama; "Field of Honor," Reliance comedy; and "Circus Stowaway," Thanhouser comedy drama.

Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble, and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh. In a few minutes after applied, you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, stops the nasty discharge which makes the breath foul and causes the disgusting hacking, spitting and blowing. Hay fever victims who are made miserable with fits of sneezing and coughing get instant relief by the use of this simple remedy. Don't suffer with catarrh another day. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a fifty cent bottle will more than likely effect a complete cure. Special Agents—Gwin & Mays Drug Company.

OHIO TO VOTE ON NEW CONSTITUTION

Columbus, O., Aug. 31.—Intense interest is manifested throughout the state in the outcome of the special election to be held next Tuesday, when the voters of the commonwealth will be given an opportunity to decide the fate of the forty-two important amendments to the state constitution provisionally adopted by the recent constitutional convention. Although personal interests and party politics are not paramount in the coming election as they are in regular elections at which candidates for various public offices are voted for, the campaign, now practically ended, was unusually spirited. Some of the amendments, although quite important from a juridical point of view, did not evoke any material controversy, while others, like the woman's suffrage amendment, the license question and the proposition in regard to the initiative and referendum were made the subjects of lively controversies.

Under the provisions of the law only registered voters will be entitled to vote at the election on Tuesday next. This will probably reduce the number of votes that will be cast, but will not materially affect the result of the election. This is due to the fact that the law governing the coming election was framed with a view of making it easier to change the constitution. At former constitutional elections it was necessary for a majority of all the voters taking part in the election to vote in favor of an amendment to secure its adoption; at the coming election, however, an amendment will be considered adopted if a majority of the voters voting on it should vote in its favor.

The ballots to be used at the coming election are one yard long and ten inches wide. One column contains the list of forty-one of the amendments to be voted on, while the proposition regarding the liquor license occupies a place by itself in the second column. There will be no "straight" ballots. Every proposal stands on its own merits and must be voted for or against separately by placing an X in the space designated for it. The work of counting the votes will be quite difficult and complicated and will occupy considerable time.

If all the amendments proposed should be adopted by the vote of the people, Ohio would obtain a practically new constitution embodying some of the most radical and progressive ideas advocated by political reformers in any part of the country. Among the most important features proposed are the following:

Legislation may be secured and the constitution amended by the initiative and referendum.
Five of the six supreme court judges must concur to set aside a law as unconstitutional.
Women are given the right to vote.
All candidates for state officers are to be nominated by primaries.
United States senators are to be nominated by the people, and a presidential preference vote is to be taken.

All appointive state positions are put under civil service rules.
The legislature is authorized to remove any state officers, including judges, upon complaint and hearing, for misconduct in office involving moral turpitude.

The legislature is authorized to regulate the issue and sale of corporation stock.
Incomes, inheritances, franchises and minerals in suit are to be taxed.
The legislature is authorized to regulate billboard advertising.

The Torrens system of land transfer is to be adopted.
Appeal litigation is to be restricted, except in felony cases there may be but one trial and one review.
Jurors need not agree unanimously in civil suits.
Capital punishment is to be abolished.

Cities and villages are given the right to frame their own charters, own and regulate their own public utilities and to adopt by ordinance such local police, sanitary and other similar regulations, not in conflict with general laws, as they may deem necessary.

Prison contract labor is to be abolished.
The legislature is authorized to pass laws for the welfare and protection of employees and for the compensation of workers for injuries received.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—Like the three-ring circus, there promises to be something doing every minute in the field of politics the coming week.

Colonel Roosevelt will leave New York bright and early Monday morning for a speech-making tour that will extend as far as the Pacific coast and carry him into more than half the states of the Union. After a short detour into New England, where he is scheduled for two Labor Day addresses, he will strike out for the West, Tuesday he is to speak at the Missouri third party convention in St. Louis. Wednesday will be devoted to a swing through Iowa, with speeches in Keokuk, Oskaloosa, Ottumwa, Des Moines and other cities. St. Paul and Minneapolis will have the third-party standard-bearer on Thursday, and the remainder of the week will be divided between the Dakotas and Montana.

Governor Woodrow Wilson will make his first speech in New York city on Wednesday, when he attends a dollar dinner of the Workingmen's Woodrow Wilson club.

Vermont's State election, the first of the year, will be held Tuesday. Republican, democratic and progressive tickets are in the field. Congressmen as well as state officers are to be elected, so the national significance will be apparent in the returns, at least to those who still hold to the old tradition that the result of the September state elections indicates the way the general elections will go in the following November.

Governor Johnson of California, vice presidential nominee of the progressive party, will open his speech-making campaign at Syracuse, N. Y., on Thursday, when he will address the delegates to the state convention of the progressive party.

Direct primary elections are to be held in California Tuesday for the selection of candidates for superior court judges, members of the legislature and representatives in congress.

Other events on the political calendar of the week will include the Michigan State democratic convention at Grand Rapids, for the completion of a state ticket; the Montana state republican convention at Great Falls, to select a complete state ticket, presidential electors and candidates for United States senator and representatives in congress; democratic primaries in Louisiana to select candidates for supreme court judges and representatives in congress; primaries of all parties in New Hampshire for the selection of candidates for state officers and representatives in congress; primaries in Nevada to nominate candidates for state officers and representatives in congress, and state conventions of the new progressive party in Missouri, North Carolina, Iowa, North Dakota and several other states.

At a special election Tuesday the voters of Ohio will pass judgment on the forty-two proposed amendments to the state constitution formulated by the constitutional convention held last spring. The list embodies nearly all of the measures of reform now in the public eye, including woman suffrage, the initiative, referendum and recall, direct primaries, the extension of the civil service to all appointive state positions, regulation of the issue and sale of corporation stock, the taxation of incomes, inheritances and franchises, the adoption of the Torrens system of land transfer, the abolition of capital punishment, the reform of court procedure and the strict regulation of the liquor traffic.

With Justice John W. Goff presiding, an extraordinary term of the supreme court is to convene in New York city Tuesday "for a speedy and vigorous prosecution of indictments which may be found" as a result of the Rosenthal murder investigation.

The Duke of Connaught, the governor-general, will cover the first section of the extensive itinerary mapped out for his travels over the Canadian west. He will be entertained in Edmonton the first of the week and from there will proceed to Calgary to attend the great "Stampede" celebration and carnival in that city.

Conventions of the week will be numerous and of an important character. Among them will be the eighth International congress of Applied Chemistry, in Washington, D. C.; the annual conference of the International Anti-Saloon League Superintendents, in Horonto; the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the United Typothetae of America, in Chicago; the Dominion Forestry convention, in Victoria, B. C.; the fifth annual convention of the Atlantic Deep Waterways Association, in New London, Conn., and the annual session of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, in Dundee, Scotland.
